A SEPTEMBER WEDDING

MISS NELLIE COCKRELL TO BE COME BRIDE OF MR. LE-LAND LOCKHART.

THE REV. J. F. CASKEY WILL OFFICIATE

Groom-to-Be is a Popular Engineer
On St. Louis and Iron Mountain —Will Make Their Home at Little Rock, Ark.

The marriage of Miss Nellie Cockrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Cockrell, of 530 East Tenth street, to Mr. Leland Lockhart, of McGee, Ark., will take place early in September, the date of which will be decided later.

The wedding will be solemnized at the Fifth Street M. E. Church, South, at high noon, the Rev. J. F. Caskey, the pastor, to officiate.

Following the ceremony, which will be attended by some 300 or more friends, the bridal party will go to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding dinner will be served. The guest list at the dinner will be limited to relatives and intimate friends.

The bridal couple will leave on the day of the wedding for the west, the honeymoon to consume six weeks or two months, during which time they will visit Colorado points and the Northwest, including Seattle and the coast cities of California. Returning to the middle states, they will locate at Little Rock, Ark., where their permanent home will be.

Miss Cockrell is one of Sedalia's pretty and popular young ladies, possessed of a strong personality, and her amiable disposition has won and held a wide circle of friends in Sedalia, her home and birthplace.

The groom-to-be is a young engineer on the Iron Mountain division of the Missouri Pacific railroad, with headquarters at Little Rock. He is popular in his home town and among his brother workmen, and is said to be worthy of the fair bride he will soon elope.

The Democrat-Sentinel extends congratulations to the young people in advance of the happy event.

MR. S. WRIGHT QUITE ILL

Was Stricken This Forenoon at Home and Fell to the Ground.

S. Wright, senior member of the firm of S. Wright & Son, meat dealers, at Seventh and Ohio streets, suffered from a sudden illness this morning at his home, 600 West Sixth street, which caused him to fall heavily to the ground.

A representative of the Democrat-Sentinel called at the Wright home this afternoon to ascertain Mr. Wright's condition, but Mrs. Wright refused to make a statement other than to say that her husband was ill and that she believed he would be all right by evening.

Mr. Wright is a pioneer citizen and his hundreds of friends and acquaintances will regret to learn of his affliction.

SOLD WHEAT FOR $1.04

Lee Lower, of Rural Route No. 1, Out of Hughesville.

Mr. Lee Lower, the hustling son of W. A. Lower, of R. F. D. No. 1, Hughesville, has just finished threshing 200 acres of wheat, which tested 61-62 pounds, and sold to the Farmers' Elevator, of Hughesville, for $1.04 per bushel.

Of the total 200 acres, 150 acres made 16 bushels per acre, and 50 acres made 26 bushels per acre.

Mr. Lower also threshed 43 acres of oats, which made a total of 3,000 bushels.

HARRY ORCHARD BAPTIZED

Self-Confessed Murderer Now Devout
Seventh Day Adventist.

Bolse, Idaho, July 23.—Harry Orchard, murderer of former Governor Stuenkel, of Idaho, according to his confession, was baptized at the penitentiary yesterday. The service was read by Elder Steward, a Seventh Day Adventist. Elder Steward made the following statement after the ceremony:

"Orchard is a devout convert and feels his sins have been forgiven. He told me that he had fully determined to commit suicide if sent up for life, but that in his faith he had found consolation and was content to remain behind the prison walls for the rest of his natural life."

An Attempted Burglary.

A negro boy named Ferguson, scarcely in his teens, attempted to break into the Woolworth Five and Ten Cent store last night, but was arrested by Night Watchman Henry Bryant just after he had cut the screen. The boy was later released, but it is likely he will be sent to the reform school at Boonville.

JEFF CITY WANTS A GAME

WITH TEAM OF SEDALIA ELKS, OF WHICH HENRY LEIST IS MANAGER.

LET'S GET BUSY AND ACCEPT CHALLENGE

Sedalia Has Never Had to Take Off
Her Hat to the Capital City, and There is No Need for It at This Late Date.

A short time ago Henry Leist made the boast that he had an Elks' team that would go against any other Elks' team in the United States, barring none.

Henry now has a challenge from a town that Sedalia never took a back seat for, and the Sedalia lodge of Elks ought to be the last in the world to do so.

This challenge is from Jefferson City. The Democrat-Sentinel understands that Henry has written letters to Jefferson City, begging them for a game, and now that they are ready the Democrat-Sentinel thinks by all means he should give them satisfaction.

Henry claims that he has no catcher, but there is plenty of good material in the Elks lodge to fill that position, and if Henry is a baseball enthusiast, and his team is what he claims it is, he should not have any hesitancy in taking on the Jefferson City team, thus holding his reputation as a great baseball magnate.

Come on, Henry! Trot your team out and let's see what they can do.

Mrs. Carbaugh is survived by one daughter, Miss Mary Carbaugh, who lived with her mother, and one son, Rudolph, who lives in Hickory county.

The deceased had resided in Sedalia since 1871. She belonged to the First Congregational church, and the pastor, Rev. Harold Cooper, will conduct the burial service at the family residence at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

JUMPED INTO PLATTE RIVER

Woman Suffering Mental Trouble
Leaped From Bridge.

Kearney, Neb., July 23.—Mrs. L. N. Mills, of Winona, Minn., who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. St. John, at this place, committed suicide last afternoon by jumping into the Platte river.

Mrs. Mills, who had been suffering from mental trouble in company with a party of women, was crossing the long bridge near here in a buggy, and without warning sprang into the river. Her lifeless body was recovered a quarter of a mile down the stream.

CAPTAIN HAINS AN INVENTOR

Sentenced to Sing Sing, He is Diligently Improving Time.

New York, July 23.—Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., improving the time he was sentenced to serve in Sing Sing for killing William E. Annis, has invented an appliance that is said to have increased the efficiency of a street cleaning machine used in New York City.

ALL HANDS TO THE PUMPS

MAY COME TO STATE FAIR

THE CITY OF HANNIBAL TALK-ING OF MAKING A BIG DIS-PLAY HERE.

COMMERCIAL CLUB BACKS UNDERTAKING

If Carried Out, Will Make the City
On the Mississippi River the Most Talked of City in The Entire State.

Railway and Warehouse Commissioned John A. Knott is also the editor of the Hannibal Morning Journal. Mr. Knott has always been the friend of Sedalia, and the following from his pen will be appreciated by readers of the Democrat-Sentinel:

Attracting attention to Hannibal is occupying the brain of the secretary of the Commercial Club, Sydney J. Roy, and he is thinking along lines that will accomplish results.

Missouri has a state fair. Hannibal is a part of Missouri, and we think a great big part of it. Mr. Roy wants Hannibal to be a part of the state fair which will be held in Sedalia this fall. He would erect a monster tent and make a magnificent display of "Made in Hannibal" products. Then he would have one hundred scenes in and about Hannibal photographed and made into slides for displaying them on canvas.

With this equipment he would give a Hannibal entertainment daily on the fair grounds with a lecture setting forth the city's advantages, socially, commercially and industrially. In this lecture he would show the strides Hannibal has made in every way during the past ten years, during which it has doubled in population. He would show the city's wonderful gain in bank deposits, its growth in manufacture, etc.

Certain it is that the idea carried out would make Hannibal the most talked about town in Missouri. Is that desirable?

The Missouri state fair is attended by people from all parts of the United States.

Probably no city ever attempted a thing of this kind.

So much the better. Let Hannibal be unique.

Hannibal was the only town of its size that was advertised at the St. Louis world's fair, thanks to the enterprise of Mr. Roy.

The suggestion, at least, is worthy of serious consideration.

Is it desirable to put Hannibal "on the map" at our own state fair?

Burial of Patrick Lewis.

Patrick Lewis, a native of Ireland, who died at the Pottis county home last Sunday of general debility, aged 82 years, was buried today.

So far as known, the deceased had no relatives in this country. He had been an inmate of the home since 1892.

The funeral was held from Sacred Heart church this morning. Rev. Fr. Rudolph Stoltz officiating.

Burial of Mrs. Abell.

Mrs. Laura Abell, wife of Henry Abell, colored, night caller for the Missouri Pacific, was buried this afternoon.

THREATS OF DYNAMITE

FOR THE PRAIRIE OIL AND GAS COMPANY AT BARTLES-VILLE, OKLA.

DON'T WANT THE PRICE OF OIL REDUCED

So Say Writers of the Letters That Contained the Threatening Language—What the General Manager Says.

Bartlesville, Ok., July 23.—James O'Neil, general manager of the Prairie Gas and Oil company, declared during a conference with a committee of local oil producers today that he has received several threatening letters in which the writers declare the company's property at Bartlesville will be dynamited if the price of oil is again reduced.

Two reductions in the price of oil, aggregating six cents, have been made during the last month.

O'Neil promised the producers his company would begin laying a pipeline from the gulf if the legislature should meet in special session and amend the Oklahoma anti-trust laws so the Prairie company would not be amenable.

INDIAN WAS CONVICTED

Student at London Is Today Sentenced to Death.

London, July 23.—Dhinagri, the Indian student, who shot and killed Lieutenant Colonel Sir William Curzon Wyllie and Dr. Laleaca, was today found guilty and sentenced to death.

TWENTY STORES BURNED

ALMOST ENTIRE BUSINESS SEC-TION OF BONANZA, ARK., IS WIPED OUT.

ONLY TWO BUILDINGS LEFT STANDING

Evidence of Thieves Having Operated During the Fire—The Loss Fixed at One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Fort Smith, Ark., July 23.—Almost the entire business section of Bonanza, sixteen miles south of here, was wiped out by fire early this morning.

About twenty stores were destroyed, only two buildings remaining. The loss is estimated at $100,000. There are evidences of thieves operating during the fire.

It was one of the most prosperous mining towns in Arkansas. This is the second fire within five years. The first one resulted in completely destroying the business section.

FOUR KILLED AT CROSSING

Two Women and Two Children Run Down By Train.

Columbus, Miss., July 23.—Mrs. J. M. Holloway, her sister, Mrs. George Myers, and Mrs. Holloway's two little girls, were killed here yesterday, when a Mobile & Ohio freight train backed into a car in which they were crossing the tracks. J. M. Holloway, who was driving, escaped.

Dynamiter at Mineral, Kansas, Escaped With $500.

THE NEW TARIFF RATES

Indications As to Conference Committee's Report.

Washington, D. C., July 23.—Indications this afternoon are strong that the tariff conference committee will report in favor of the following rates: Petroleum, free; coal, 45 cents a ton; iron ore, 25 cents; hides, 7 cents ad valorem; lumber, $1.25 a thousand. There will be considerable opposition to the hide reduction.

Little Girl's Ninth Birthday.

Little Miss Ruth Harriman entertained about thirty of her friends on Wednesday afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock, in honor of her 9th birthday. The little folks had a jolly time playing games, after which refreshments of ice cream, cake and fruits were served.

The young hostess was the recipient of many pretty gifts. In a contest little Mildred Stralor was awarded first prize and Pearl Dowd second.

LOBBYISTS ARE AT WORK

THEY "SWARMED" AROUND THE TARIFF CONFERENCE COM-MITTEE TODAY.

THE PROCEEDINGS WERE THUS DELAYED

House Tariff Insurgents Interview
Conferees—Took Special Pains to Inform Mr. Aldrich of Desires.

Washington, D. C., July 23.—A large number of lobbyists gathered about the members of the tariff conference committee as they arrived at the senate finance committee's rooms today and delayed the proceedings.

Each of the conferees was interviewed by a committee representing the house insurgents.

The committee took especial pains to inform Mr. Aldrich of their desires, and of the situation in the house.

They would not commit themselves on what stand they would take on the conference report.

TO CLASS IN SHIRT SLEEVES

New Methods Adopted at M. S. U.
Summer School.

Columbia, Mo., July 23.—The students of the summer school at the University of Missouri say they have had more comfort this year than ever before. The men are permitted to go to the classes without their coats.

When Dr. Richard Henry Jesse was president of the University no boy was permitted to go in his shirt sleeves. Whenever Dr. Jesse ran across such an offender in the corridors the student was immediately rebuked, and at one time a bulletin was posted, forbidding the men to enter the library without their coats on.

Dr. Albert Ross Hill, president, is not such a stickler for form. He is often seen in his own office in shirt sleeves, and he has not tried to interfere with the comfort of the students.

Some professors have joined the coatless brigade, as the coatless boys have named themselves.

SAY MAN WAS INTOXICATED

When He Bequeathed $10,000 to An Oklahoma Church.

McAlester, Ok., July 23.—Alleging that the late J. A. Barnett, who bequeathed $80,000 to the Southern Methodist Episcopal church of this city, was intoxicated and incompetent when the will was made, relatives of the dead man, including a sister, have instituted proceedings to have the document set aside.

The church will fight the case.

DEATH LIST INCREASES

Further Reports From the Hurricane
On the Texas Coast.

Houston, Texas, July 23.—Galveston today began rebuilding the structures razed by the storm Wednesday. The wires are down, but reports from the interior show greater damage than at Galveston.

In the interior a score were killed, thirty were injured and thirteen are missing. The property loss is $750,000.

Postponed the Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Demand, who died at Wichita, Kan., last Monday, was to have been held at Smithton today, but it was postponed until 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, owing to a daughter, Mrs. Sloane, having been delayed in her arrival at Smithton by a washout in the west.

TO HAVE FIREWORKS, TOO

SECRETARY STINSON SECURES
ANOTHER FEATURE FOR THE STATE FAIR.

THE DISPLAY WILL COST ABOUT $5,000

Sixty Balloons Will Ascend in Announcing Events to Be Held On Big Thursday,
October 7.

In addition to the many side features the 1909 exhibition of the Missouri state fair offers, Secretary Stinson today completed plans with the United States Fireworks Co., of St. Louis and Memphis, for a pyrotechnic display extraordinary on the night of Big Thursday of the fair.

F. M. Jackson, vice president of the company, spent today in Sedalia with Secretary Stinson in winding up the details.

The display will eclipse anything ever attempted in Sedalia, and there has been some mighty successful ones given by Sedalia's famous Flambeau club, too.

It will consist of aerial and set pieces, known as Niagara Falls, the walking elephant, and among the set pieces will be portraits of Governor Herbert S. Hadley, President Taft and other men of national prominence.

And even Dan Patch, the famous racer, which comes here for the entertainment of the public, will be "done" in fireworks.

The United States Fireworks Co. is noted for its many beautiful pieces of pyrotechnics, and the display to be given here will include its best efforts. This firm supplied the Cuban government with the fireworks used in the celebration at Mora Castle, and of late years the fairs at Memphis and other places have been using fireworks as a feature attraction.

A novel plan of advertising this particular feature will be started about ten days before the fair opens. About sixty balloons will be used, and an average of six to eight a day will be sent up, each one to contain a ticket, entitling the person who finds or catches the balloon, admission to the grounds to witness the display.

Surely, with the feature attractions Secretary Stinson is securing, all good ones, the home-coming held jointly and the superb exhibition the Missouri state fair always gives, ought to make the show next October a hummer.

STRANDED TROUPE IS "O. K."

Manager's Brother Sends Money
Enough to Move company.

Montgomery, Mo., July 23.—The four actors, A. G. Wiser, Claude Sylvester, Geo. Heinlein and Claude Outget, who were arrested for leaving their board ill unsettled, struck it rich yesterday. Mr. Wiser, the manager, who claims to be worth between $15,000 and $18,000, being a partner with his brother, M. L. Wiser, a large contractor at Louisville Ky., got ample financial assistance yesterday, and paid all the bills and court fines and costs and departed last night for Kansas City, where he proposes to organize a new company and fulfill his various dates throughout Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma.

Two of the seven actresses who were stranded departed for their homes yesterday.

ADAM GOD TO PENITENTIARY

The Religionist and 26 Others Were Transferred Today.

Kansas City, Mo., July 23.—Twenty-seven prisoners were taken from the county jail this morning to Jefferson City by Marshal Joel Mayes and deputies.

Among them is James Sharp or Adam God, to serve twenty-five years for killing Michael Mullane, a patrolman, in the city hall riot last December. Sharp says he wants no appeal to the supreme court.

Edward Cassidy goes for ten years for the killing of Nathan Bassin, a shoemaker; Thomas Ford, fifteen years for murder; James W. Dixon and Bench Underwood, convicted of assault in connection with a $1,000 violin robbery from George S. Wan Dell, for five years each.

COMING HOME?

Back to Sedalia, the beautiful Queen City, and visit again the scenes of years gone by.

The Home Coming reunion will be held October 2, 3, 4 and 5, during the week of the Missouri State Fair.

The semi-centennial of the founding of the city will be celebrated, and a grand welcome will be extended to all who gather to commemorate the event.

There are ex-Sedalians everywhere, but they will all be here again at the Home Coming.

HOW SOME "BUTTER" IS MADE.

A recipe for making "fancy" creamery butter—of a kind—came out in the course of the prosecution of an olcomargarine case in the United States district court in Chicago. It reads:

"Take 30 pounds of white olcomargine, 60 pounds of poor quality butter and 20 pounds of water. Mix well and add coloring to suit."

Four truck loads of the stuff made after this formula were seized by government officials.

The pure food law is a good thing
—where enforced.

HOW TONGUES TELL TALES.

From the observations made by a physiognomist it appears that the tongue when quite still can be as eloquent in giving its power away as when it is wagging 16 to the dozen.

This is a hard fact for a silent man to swallow—in silence. His only remedy is to keep well, so as to obviate the necessity of injunction of the doctor to put his tongue out, for by this thrust-out sign the doctor shall know him.

The tongue of the talker when obtruded inclines to the right side of the mouth, we are asked to believe, whereas the seldom-used tongue gravitates to the left side.

Furthermore, the tongue that shoots out straight, without turning or wavering, indicates a solid, reliable man of affairs. Tongues that turn up indicate impractical natures, downward drooping tongue belongs to a person born to poverty and a ready eye for the hopeless side of things. The cruel tongue flattens and broadens when extended.

The delicate speaking organ with curled-up edges, is the property of an imaginative and artistic being.
When the tongue issues forth as if gripped in a dental vise it signifies a love of life more than ordinary.

Finally, we are warned that the individual who thrusts forth his tongue to its extreme verge is a person to whom no secret should ever be confided, for he is an irresponsible character.

ORGANIZATIONS BY WOMEN.

Too little attention is given to organizations of women. More and more every woman is being drawn into some sort of club or association, and as a result women are growing less morally and mentally near-sighted.

The daily papers which lead us to believe that women assemble simply to wage a word of war and display their millinery are misleading, for those who know can testify that such is not the case—the war and the millinery being only feminine characteristics of the most superficial sort and signifying no more than men's tobacco smoke.

The women's organizations, says the Delineator, have done much in a moral and civic way, and their work is marching on.

For instance, the American people possess Mount Vernon as a Mecca for patriotic pilgrims because of a devoted group of women; and they have to thank the "Daughters of the American Revolution" for most of our other historical landmarks.

The buying in of Washington's headquarters at Valley Forge, which otherwise would have gone under the hammer, is instanced as only one of their good works. They carry on a practical charity as well.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union is one of the quietest but most efficient of women's organizations. What they do for erring girls —and to prevent young girls from treading the dark ways—is a beautiful story in itself, aside from their warfare against intemperance, their work in the jails, etc.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy have largely been the cause of the union, now so strongly cemented between the north and the south.

If "the women of the south made the war," as they have been accused of doing, then have they bound up the wounds they caused.

PRIESTS AT THE SHOWS

A CRUSADE AGAINST NICKEL-DEONS AS RESULT OF POPE'S EDICT.

THE VIEWS OF THE REV. FR. D. S. PHELAN

Catholic Clergy Disapprove of Women and Children Patronizing Some of the Picture Shows Now Before the Public.

St. Louis, Mo., July 22.—It is probable Catholic clergymen of St. Louis will begin a campaign to discourage the patronage of picture shows here by women and children as a result of advances from Rome Wednesday, announcing that Pope Pius X. has issued a decree, forbidding the clergy to attend exhibitions of that kind, on the ground that many of them offend religion and morality. The Star-Chronicle says:

Heretofore, throughout the world,
there has been a general prohibition against priests attending theaters, but the advent of picture shows furnished an amusement that was heavily patronized by churchmen, especially in the Latin speaking countries, where money is not plentiful.

Rev. D. S. Phelan, editor of Western Watchman and pastor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel parish, believes the decree of the pope applies only to his diocese, the pope being the bishop of Rome. Rev. Phelan says:

"I hardly think the decree is general, since the bishops of the various dioceses or council synods generally make their own laws. The pope, I take it, issued the decree for his diocese, and other bishops or councils may follow if they desire.

"It is true," Fr. Phelan said, "that priests and monks abroad patronize cinematograph shows. It is cheap amusement and they have very little money over there. But here I don't think there is need of such a decree, for I believe the priests here would not attend picture shows."

"There has been some complaint, however, about these shows and they have been discussed among clergymen of St. Louis. Women and children attend these places frequently and oftentimes the pictures shown are very suggestive. I think the general trend of such shows is not for the betterment of their patrons. They are all right for a time, but their general trend is downward."

on Walnut street, between Second and Third streets. Stringer has been supporting his sister-in-law and her six children since his brother was slain.

A year and a half ago William P. Stringer was stabbed to death by William Wurtz in a quarrel over a comic valentine. He was rushed to the city hospital, where he died an hour later. James J. Stringer was with him in his last moments. The dying man's last thoughts were of his wife and six small children.

Before he died he exacted a solemn promise from his brother that he would care for them and see that neither they nor Mrs. Stringer should want for anything.

After his brother's death, Stringer set about to fulfill his promise. He fitted a home for the little family at 3103 Caroline street and came to board with Mrs. Stringer. He was their only support, and for nearly eighteen months all he earned has gone to his sister-in-law and her children.

Several days ago Stringer's cousin, visiting with them for a time, suggested that Stringer and Mrs. Stringer be married.

"You are using all your money here and can never marry anybody else as long as you fulfill your promise to your brother and support his widow and children," Stringer was told. "You are practically the head of the family. Why don't you and Mrs. Stringer marry?"

Stringer said he was willing. Mrs. Stringer acquiesced and the result was an agreement that Stringer's first day off should be their wedding day.

The day came Wednesday. Stringer, who is a marble cutter, was given a day off. He and his sister-in-law journeyed to the city hall and got a license. Then they went to the old Catholic cathedral and the ceremony was performed.

Wurtz received a sentence of three months in the workhouse and a fine of $100 for killing William Stringer. The killing was done during a quarrel, following the receipt of a comic valentine by Wurtz. The sender of the valentine was unknown, but a number of Wurtz's acquaintances undertook to chaff him about it. A leader in the crowd was Stringer. Wurtz became enraged, and when Stringer continued to twit him over the receipt of the comic, Wurtz drew a knife and rushed on Stringer, stabbing him in several places. The wounds were fatal.

THE THEATRICAL WORLD

CHARLES FROHMAN EXPECTED FROM EUROPEAN TRIP TOMORROW.

AMBITIOUS THINGS FOR MAUDE ADAMS

The Shuberts to Present Lulu Glaser in "The Girl from the States"—Productions By Other Renowned Stars.

By William S. Brewer. Special to the Democrat-Sentinel. New York, June 23.—All Broadway is preparing to welcome Charles Frohman on his return from Europe tomorrow, and rival managers, incidentally, are on the qui vive to hear about official plans for the coming Frohman season. These the great manager usually announces as soon as he lands. In fact, there are those who say that the busy Charles whistles away the tedium during the trip across the Atlantic preparing manifold copies of his announcement in order to scare away sea-sickness.

From an authoritative source it is known that very ambitious things have been planned for Maude Adams and Ethel Barrymore. Mr. Frohman having recently declared, by cable, that Miss Barrymore is now a full-fledged woman, not from the standpoint of age, but ability. He now considers her capable of taking emotional roles and essaying parts hitherto considered too heavy for her. From letters already received from London, he announces the engagement of several important English stars, also the acquisition of four or five English theatres, one of which he will use solely for a stock company to be established upon the model of the old Empire Theatre stock company from which has graduated so many well known stars of today. Theatrical speaking, every one is more interested in the new season's plans as they will be carried out by the various managers and stars than in anything else just now.

The Shuberts announce that they have selected "The Girl from the States" as the new starring vehicle for Lulu Glaser, who will begin her second season under their management early in the autumn.

"The Girl from the States" is by Glen MacDonough, with music by Baldwin Sloane and Raymond Hubbell. The story of the piece concerns the frolics of a venturesome girl from the states—impersonated by Miss Glaser—who visits Paris incognito and has many adventures.

Among those already engaged to support Miss Glaser are Connie Ediss, Alexander Clarke, Roy Atwell, George Leon Moore, William Danforth, Eugene Redding, M. L. Alsop, Wilmer Bentley, Nell Follis and Joyyna Howard. There will be a chorus of eighty. Frederic Thompson has also completed his arrangements for the theatrical season about to open.

Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson, the authors of "The Man from Home" and "Cameo Kirby," have completed and delivered the manuscript of "Springtime," which will be produced in the middle of October, with Miss Mabel Taliaferro in the star role. This will be the most important of the Thompson productions the coming season.

Eugene Walter is writing a new play, "The Assassin," and this piece with a male star will be shown to the public for the first time early in the winter. J. Hartley Manners, the author of "The House Next Door" and "The Great John Ganton," has completed and had accepted by Mr. Thompson for early production a new play entitled, "The Fool's Comedy." This piece will have a male star, whose name will be announced within a few days.

Porter Emerson Browne, who wrote "A Fool There Was," has written for Mr. Thompson two new plays, "The Love" and "Waste," both of which will be seen on Broadway before the holidays.

Margaret Anglin has engaged that excellent actor, John Findlay, for the important part of Mr. Lavender in "The Awakening of Helena Ritchie." Findlay was under engagement for the season to Frederic Thompson, who as an act of courtesy, consented to release him to Miss Anglin.

Looking as fit as a fiddle, Blanche Walsh has returned from abroad, ready, as the pugilists say, to give the fight of her life.

Miss Walsh's fight will, as usual, be with the drama, and her approaching season is made particularly interesting because she has been chosen as the opening attraction of the William Penn theatre, in Philadelphia, the promotion of which is thought to have caused the suicide of G. A. Wegelarth, and the title of which has been in litigation for a long time.

The entanglements over the ownership of the William Penn have finally been straightened out. On September 11 Miss Walsh will appear there as the star in "The Test."

Up to this point "The Test" is an unknown quality, so far as New York is concerned, but on tour last season it earned a handsome profit for both star and producer, and has been considered quite good enough to go over the route a second time.

Lew Fields has made contracts with Victor Herbert for three musical pieces, one with book by Edgar Smith and lyrics by George V. Hobart, in which Fields himself will appear.

Another is by Herbert and Hobart for the use of a Fields star, and the third is a new version of "Algeria," formerly presented at the Broadway theatre, which will be offered this time under the title of "The Rose of Algeria."

Mr. George M. Cohan will open his season in "The Yankee Prince" in New York on September 6, and after two weeks here will appear in Washington, D. C., whence he will depart on a tour of Virginia, Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Colorado, Utah and the entire Pacific coast, reaching St. Paul about the first of the new year.

He will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry J. Cohan and Miss Josephine Cohan. The railroad equipment for this trip of 23,000 miles will consist of three sixty-foot baggage cars, one to be used as a garage for Mr. Cohan's two automobiles; two day cars, two Pullman sleepers, and Mr. Cohan's new private car, which is to be christened "The Yankee Prince."

The stage will have an important recruit in the charming personality of Miss Hilda Stowe, granddaughter of Harriet Beecher Stowe, the author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," who will make her professional debut with William Faversham in "Herod" this fall.

She is the daughter of a clergyman, the Rev. C. E. Stowe, formerly pastor of a church at Bridgewater, but now of Northampton, L. I.

She has had considerable experience in amateur theatricals, appearing in school productions in Switzerland and Germany, as Puck in "A Midsummer Night's Dream" while in school at Northampton and in other amateur Shakespearean productions. She is still in her teens and is pretty.

Apparently the end of this "monkey business" that is sweeping the town is not yet. Consul the Great has already turned green with envy over the preparation now making for the reception of Consul Peter, who is due here from London next Monday or Tuesday. Here's what they try to make you believe about Peter:

He's absolutely the greatest thing in apes the world has ever seen. He positively talks to you. There's not a thing that a man will do that Peter balks at, except whisky drinking. More than that, Peter, who has taken London by storm, has his human imitators. One of these is Sam Collins, the American comedian, who gives a travesty duplicate of Peter's act at the Empire, in London.

He has been engaged for the Vivetrolia roof and will appear on August 4, just a week after Peter's first bow there. Collins' place on the program will be just after Peter and the same stunts will be gone through.

Whether one believes all that is said or not, these man-apes have their place in the amusement world and will do much to keep the public interested until the regular season begins, which will be in two weeks.

For durability and strictly up to date style, they have no equal. You will see there are no holes in the center of the saddle tree, but the old styles have, which weakens them. There are no taps, bolts or screws on the underside to work loose and chafe a horse.

The check hook we positively guarantee never to break off by the stumbling of a horse. Look at your old harness and you will see the difference.

Is there any good reason why you should not buy your harness with the improved New Ideal harness saddle and get the benefit of the advantages? They cost you no more than the inferior old style. Lansing, Mich., July 23.—There is a growing sentiment in this community that if Reuben Gray makes good in his attempt to wed Mary Mallon, or "Typhoid Mary," he will be asked to carry his matrimonial prize to some distant part of the state, as the citizens of Lansing and vicinity do not relish the idea of having Miss Mallon as a permanent resident of Ingham county.

Gray was at one time confined in an insane asylum. He is known to have considerable money, and his neighbors are afraid of him.

Church Without Fees.
The rector of Alderley, England, declared at his vestry meeting that his parish church was now entirely free from fees. He stated that he had a conscientious objection to receiving either marriage or burial fees, and thought they were a source of abuse. Alderley is said to be the only parish church in England where there are no fees.

Getting a New Crop of Hair, and Has No More Dandruff.

Everybody in the Northwest knows Col. Daniel Searles, the veteran journalist and publicist of Butte. The dandruff disappeared; a new crop of hair has taken root, and the bald spot is rapidly being covered." Herpicide is the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ that digs up the scalp in scales as it burrows its way to the root of the hair, where it destroys the vitality of the hair, causing the hair to fall out. CHILD'S DREADFUL SKIN TROUBLES
Had Sixty Boils when but Six Months Old—Was Annually Attacked by a Humor—It Looked Red Like a Scald and Spread Over Half Her Head—Both Troubles are Cured.

NO PRAISE TOO HIGH FOR THE CUTICURA REMEDIES
"When my little Vivian was about six months old, her papa had a boil on his forehead. At that time the child was covered with prickly heat and I suppose in scratching it, her own head became infected for it broke out in boils, one after another. She had about sixty in all and I used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment which cured her of them entirely. Then, sometime later, her little foot got sore between the toes. Being afraid it was scald, I spoke to our doctor. He gave me a powder which dried it up, but soon after it broke out behind her ears. They cracked half way around and the humor spread up on to her head until, on several occasions, it was nearly half covered. The humor looked like a scald, very red with a sticky, clear fluid coming from it. This occurred every year. I think it was toward the spring. I always bathed it with warm water and Cuticura Soap and applied Cuticura Ointment which never failed to heal it up. The last time it broke out was when she was six years old. It became so bad that I was discouraged. Then I procured a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent which soon cleared it out of her blood. I continued the use of Cuticura Soap and Ointment with the Resolvent until she was perfectly well. She is now about eight years old and has never been troubled in the last two years. We also find Cuticura Resolvent a good spring medicine and we are just giving the children Cuticura Resolvent Pills as a tonic. We do not think any one can praise Cuticura Remedies too highly. Mrs. M. A. Schwerin, 674 Spring Wells Ave., Detroit, Mich., Feb. 24, 1905."

HELD ON BOND OF $10,000

THOMAS W. WARREN, CHARGED WITH MURDER OF JOHN WILKERSON.

CONCLUDED AT 8 O'CLOCK LAST NIGHT

Defendant Gives His Version of the Shooting and Claims Self-Defense—Other Witnesses Who Were Examined.

The preliminary examination of Thomas W. Warren, charged with the murder of his tenant, John Wilkerson, on Friday morning, July 16, was ended shortly before 8 o'clock Thursday evening at Lamonte before Justice W. E. Reavis, who held the defendant to the criminal division of the circuit court. Bond was fixed in the sum of $10,000, which was given, the bondsmen being Judge John P. Higgins, father-in-law of the accused, and F. H. Tuck.

In concluding the case, Attorney W. D. Steele, for the defense, made an eloquent plea for the release of his client on the line of self-defense, while Prosecutor Dow, in his closing remarks, made a masterful and forceful address for the holding of the defendant.

The afternoon session brought out by far the largest crowd of people that ever assembled in a court room in Lamonte, a large percentage being ladies.

When the doors of the court room were thrown open a mad rush was made by the vast throng in an effort to secure seats, and in the frantic efforts of the crowd to accomplish this it is almost miraculous that no one was pushed down and trampled upon.

As stated in the Democrat-Sentinel of last afternoon, the witnesses examined for the defense were Clark Fisher, who was the first man to reach the Warren home after the tragedy; Arthur Dickerson, constable of Blackwater township; Judge John P. Higgins, E. W. Teter, J. L. Ward and the defendant, who testified in his own behalf.

The testimony of all the defendant's witnesses was given as they had been told by Warren of the trouble between himself and Wilkerson, and the real evidence, and, in fact, the only evidence, aside from hearsay, was given by Warren, who was on the stand for over two hours.

Although seeming somewhat depressed, and at times appearing as if about to break down under the terrible strain he had to undergo, he unfalteringly related his version of the tragedy.

He told of Wilkerson moving to his place last March, and of an agreement between them by which Wilkerson was to share half of a potato patch, a settlement over which is said to have been the direct cause of the desperate encounter between the two men in which Wilkerson was shot.

Warren told of efforts to get Wilkerson to remove from his place after they had had misunderstandings, and in doing so, witness stated, he asked for a settlement, and informed Wilkerson that he had started proceedings to have him vacate the premises, according to law.

Continuing his testimony, witness said Wilkerson made the remark: "I'll kill you or any other man that attempts to put me off."

The defendant said that he feared Wilkerson and stated that the night previous to the shooting, after he had seen Wilkerson stalking about in the darkness at the rear of his home, he and his wife spent the most horrible night they ever did, not sleeping at all, and his wife, out of fear, was almost distracted and wept almost continuously.

He told of starting early, before sun up, the morning of the shooting to the cow lot, and after proceeding some distance from the house he returned for his revolver, and started to enter his barn to feed, when he was attacked from behind.

He said he first felt something pulling at his coat, and, turning, grappled with Wilkerson, who had something in his hand with which he made an effort to strike. Witness said he did not know it to be a hedge knife until after he had shot and killed his adversary.

He told of running from the scene of the shooting to his home, of telephoning H. G. Fisher, and of the arrival of Clark Fisher, who resides one-fourth mile from the Warren home, and who stated that he was attracted there by the two shots, fired almost simultaneously, and which caused Wilkerson's death.

Defendant repeated the story he told Clark Fisher, as well as telling Mr. H. G. Fisher on his arrival: "Get off your horse and go to the barn; I've done something desperate."

He further told of threats made numerous times by Wilkerson and referred to him as a dangerous and desperate character.

Mrs. Warren, wife of the defendant, who is a frail woman, was to have taken the stand in behalf of her husband, but on account of suffering from nervous prostration was unable to appear.

"DAVID GARRICK" GREAT

THIS WAS THE VERDICT OF THE CHAUTAUQUA PATRONS LAST NIGHT.

MR. RICE PROVED HIMSELF A WONDER

Miss Edna B. Smith, the Child Impersonator Made a Splendid Hit—Schilkret's Hungarian Orchestra Tonight.

When a dramatic reader that is practically unknown must face an audience that has heard Leland Powers and Montaville Flowers, and must measure up to the high standard they have set, and can hold and charm an audience as Mr. Rice did last night, he is entitled to a place among the foremost dramatic readers of today; and the Chautauqua patrons are pleased to know that Mr. Rice will appear again at the assembly.

There is nothing uncommon about Miss Edna B. Smith's name, but her name is the only common thing about her. Did you hear that baby cry—just a little too real to be comfortable? Few of our entertainers have so completely captured the people as did Miss Smith last night.

Today Schilkret's Hungarian orchestra gives two grand concerts, and two record-breaking crowds are expected. Schilkret knows that everybody attends the Chautauqua, and so he gives a program that everybody can enjoy. His orchestra this year is larger and better than ever before.

We have never enjoyed any musical organization more than a good male quartette, and tomorrow one of the best male quartettes in America will give two concerts at the Chautauqua. The Lyrics are remembered here for their excellent work, and will be greeted by admiring audiences tomorrow.

Tickets for the great Yaw concert on sale at the Bruce Pharmacy and at the gate. Reserved seats 25 cents extra.

THE HEAT KILLED TWO

A THIRD VICTIM WENT MAD AND ATTEMPTED TO MURDER HER MOTHER.

MINISTER OF GOSPEL ALSO SUGGERS

Unidentified Man Died By the Road side—An Unusual Chapter at Cape Girardeau, Where Mercury Reached 94.

Cape Girardeau, Mo., July 23.—The heat claimed three victims in Cape Girardeau yesterday. Two are dead and the third, a woman, attacked her mother with a butcherknife in her frenzy.

Mrs. Fritz Obacht became delirious last afternoon. She and her mother were alone in her home. The mother noticed the daughter was acting queerly and asked her if she was ill.

Without a word Mrs. Obacht seized a butcherknife and slashed at her throat. The elder woman dodged and the point of the knife struck her in the face, inflicting a deep gash.

She screamed and fled into the yard. Neighbors heard her cries and came to her assistance.

The Rev. George Schleuter, a German Evangelical minister of Union, a small town six miles from here, died from heat prostration last afternoon, after walking from Union to Cape Girardeau.

An unidentified man was overcome by the heat in the railroad yards and died soon after he was found, unconscious, at the side of the track where he had fallen.

The thermometer registered only 94 degrees in Cape Girardeau yesterday lacking several degrees of being as high as it has registered on several other days this year.

TAKE A TRIP TO ALASKA

A JUNKET FOR THE MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL EDITO-RIAL ASSOCIATION.

THEY LEFT SEATTLE TODAY FOR TACOMA

Also Visit Paradise Valley, and Tomorrow Will Start Upon a Long Journey to Points in Alaska.

Seattle, July 23.—Having completed
the business part of their program, the delegates to the National Editorial association's convention set out on an outing today to Tacoma and Paradise Valley.

Tacoma will give the moulders of public opinion an enthusiastic welcome and the editors will be given a joy ride about the city in automobiles. They will also visit the glaciers, mountains and waterfalls, canyons, forests and other miscellaneous scenery abounding in that vicinity.

Returning to Seattle this evening, the knights of the pencil and paste pot will prepare for the important event of the morrow.

Some of the editors will leave on an excursion to Victoria, while a large number will board the Northwestern, of the Alaska Steamship line, for a trip of eighteen or twenty days to Southern Alaska.

With the possible exception of the Bermuda trip of the International League of Press clubs this spring, this will be the most important junket ever undertaken by an American organization of newspaper men.

The route from Seattle along the coast of British Columbia and Alaska among the thousands of islands that lie along the coast north of the Strait of Fuca is through Active Pass into the Gulf of Georgia, and thence northward for nearly 500 miles through British Columbia waters and across the International boundary in the Dixon Entrance and along Revillagigedo channel and Tongas Narrows to Ketchikan, sub-port of entry and the first port in Alaska, 662 miles north of Seattle.

At Ketchikan commercial Alaska begins—mines, forests and fisheries, churches and societies, courts, newspaper and stores. It is like a thriving city of the western United States.
But the totem poles, shore line and wooded hillsides and beautiful Salmon river belong to Alaska alone, and the tourists will find unique interest for every moment of the stay in port.

After the stop in Ketchikan the vessel returns southward for a few miles along Tongas Narrows and Nichols Passage to Metlakatla, the most progressive Indian town in the world, located on the west shore of Annette Island.

Here a warm greeting is given by "Father" Duncan, who will conduct the party through an interesting inspection of training schools, stores, sawmills, canneries and library, industries owned and operated exclusively by Indians, and in the great church listen to a few words by Mr.
Duncan, whose devotion has made this community of a thousand Christian souls from what was formerly a savage horde.

From Metlakatla the trip continues northward to Juneau, 900 miles north of Seattle. Before reaching there a view is had of picturesque Taku and Windom glaciers, situated closely together in Taku inlet. The bold, vertical frontage of Yaku glacier is over 200 feet high and a mile wide. The ice is of a beautiful intense blue glacier that no other glacier possesses. The front reaches into fifty fathoms of water and is continually discharging bergs with thunder-like roar.

The southeastern coast has enjoyed a steady growth for years past, and is the principal business center of that section of the district. Juneau has daily newspapers, banks, an opera house, electric lights, modern hotel buildings and merchandise stores where large stocks are carried.

Juneau has a population of about 2,500 people, and is one of the oldest cities in Alaska. It is a mail distributing center for points to the westward, and small steamers run from there to Sitka and Skagway and points on the Lynn canal.

Thus far the "Northwestern" has sailed through what is termed the "inside passage." It will prove to be one continuous and ever-changing panorama of pine-clad hills, towering, snow-capped mountains, countless islands, wonderful glaciers, fords and beautiful cascades leading into the sea.

The scene is enlivened by numerous whales playing here and there, and schools of sportive porpoise racing with the ship and crossing her bow, now to the starboard and then again to the port.

But after leaving Treadwell the steamer will turn off to the westward, passing out through Icy Strait and Cross Sound into the open ocean. It is about thirty hours' run across to Hichinbrook.

The ocean trip will be a novelty and a great attraction to many of the party and the scenery to the westward is worth crossing a sea to see.

The coast line to the north, while the ship is crossing from Cross Sound to Prince William Sound, is composed of a magnificent, most rugged chain of mountains, including Mount St. Elias and Mount Wrangle, the latter a smoking volcano, inlaid with numberless glaciers, including the great Malaspina glacier, one of the largest, if not the largest, in the world.

The first big town reached will be Cordova, the sea terminus of the Copper river and Northwestern railway, which is being built by way of the Copper river to the Yukon and tapping en route the valleys of the Tanana and White rivers, with branches to the coal and oil fields at Kavak and the extensive copper mines of the Chitina. This is one of the newest but most progressive and growing of modern Alaska towns.

The next port is Seward, a railroad terminus. From this point the Alaska Central railroad is building northward to the Tanana river, fifty miles of road now being in operation.

A short run to the westward from Seward and the "Northwestern" party is landed at Port Graham, on Cook inlet, the transfer point between ocean steamers operating from Seattle and smaller steamers operating on Cook inlet. A start is then made on the return trip, with stops at most of the points previously mentioned.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for widowhood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good."

It is non-secret, non-alcoholic and has a record of forty years of cures. Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

INVENTOR'S DEVICE FOR CON-STRUCTING A RAILROAD
WITHOUT TIES.

COACH CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Murray A. Temple, of Tiffin, O., a railroader of many ears' experience, has invented and had patented a device designed to do away entirely with wooden ties in railroad construction.

The Temple device, according to the Tiffin Times, is called a continuous "railbase and cross tie," which, if adopted, will bring about a revolution in railroad building.

Temple is not the only inventor who has tried to find a substitute for the wooden tie, but he claims for his device that it has a practicality and simplicity which other devices lack.

The only thing that can be said in defense of the wooden tie is that a superior substitute has not been found. The wooden tie rots quickly, allowing the ends of the rails to sag down, bringing about a condition which trackmen call "low joints and high centers."

Rotten ties must be replaced, necessitating a releveling of the road-bed and a rehauling of the rails. With the increasing scarcity of lumber the price of ties has climbed until now a tie costs 80 cents or thereabouts.

Fishplates break under the strain of trains pounding over rotten ties, and spikes come loose, making a spreading of rails a dangerous possibility. Even if wrecks do not occur, the effect of a jumpy roadbed is ruinous to rolling stock.

In the Temple device the rails lie on a continuous plate of steel 20 inches wide. The plates, with the rails upon them, are connected at intervals by "L" bars, which keep the track always in gauge.

Railspreading, Temple says, is impossible. Plates, rails and "L" bars are laid directly on the roadbed of gravel or crushed stone, preferably the latter. The crushed stone roadbed is generally regarded with favor by trackmen because it is less subject to washouts.

"Low joints and high centers" are avoided in the Temple device by placing the joining ends of the continuous plates in the center of the rails and the joining ends of the rails in the center of the plates. Allowance is made for the contraction and expansion of the rails so that there can be no shrinking or buckling up of tracks where the Temple device is used.

Down the center of the tracks, between the plates, is a raised path of tamped crushed stone which is designed to keep the track from slipping sideways. A number of old trackmen who have seen Temple's plans have pronounced them practical.

Supt. Finney Gets Vacation.

Supt. N. J. Finney has been granted a leave of absence of five days, extending from July 26 to the 31st. He will leave in company with his son, N. J. jr., and will visit his father, of Milwaukee.

A. E. Boughner, superintendent at Franklin Junction, arrived last evening to take charge of both Mr. Finney's and his own division; and Mr. Watcher, dispatcher at New Franklin, will be relieved by another trick man Mr. Watcher going to Hannibal to assist Mr. Boughner.

BARBECUE IN THE SOUTH

IS BEING HELD ON THE PLANTATION OF GEN. MUNFORD IN ALABAMA.

WE'VE SEVERAL ADDRESSES BY EXPERTS

Among the Subjects Were "The Growing of Alfalfa" and "The Raising of Cattle—Those Who Delivered Addresses."

Uniontown, Ala., July 23.—One of the biggest barbecues ever held in the South is being held today on the plantation of Gen. T. T. Munford, near this city.

Previous to the barbecue dinner there were several addresses by experts upon diversified farming. These addresses were made by experts from the Agricultural Department of the United States, laymen from other states as well as prominent farmers of Alabama.

Among the United States government experts who made addresses were Prof. J. H. Spillman, of the bureau of plant industry at Washington, and Prof. Hunter, entomologist of the United States Agricultural bureau.

Several other experts from the Agricultural Department also made addresses upon as many different subjects, and among which were the growing of alfalfa and the breeding of cattle.

General Munford has under cultivation on his plantation 1,200 acres of alfalfa, and this crop was used as a demonstration to those who in future want to put in a few acres in growing and raising such a crop.
